A Council, in writing, may delegate with or without conditions to the General Manager, any of its functions or powers under any Act.

S.22 Local Government Act 1993 (subject to restrictions).

The General Manager, in writing, may delegate to an employee of the Council

- (a) any functions or powers under any Act, other than this power of delegation; and
- (b) any functions or powers delegated by the Council which the Council authorised the General Manager to delegate.

S.64 Local Government Act 1993.

If an Act confers a power on a person to delegate a function or power, the person may, in accordance with the Act, delegate the function or power to

- (a) a person by name; or
- (b) the holder of a particular office or position by reference to the title of the office or position concerned, whether or not the office or position is vacant at the time of the delegation.

S.23AA(1) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1931.

If a function or power is delegated to a particular officer or the holder of a particular office or position

- (a) the delegation does not cease to have effect merely because the person who was the particular officer or the holder of the particular office or position when the function or power was delegated ceases to be that officer or the holder of that office or position; and
- (b) the function or power may be performed or exercised by the person for the time being occupying or acting in the office or position concerned.

S.23AA(5) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1931.

A function or power that has been delegated may, notwithstanding the delegation, be exercised by the delegator.

S.23AA(6) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1931.

Pursuant to the powers of the Local Government Act 1993 the Council hereby delegates the exercise and performance of the following functions and powers to the General Manager and/or an Officer/employee of Council on the following conditions:

- i. Each delegation is subject to the conditions or restrictions (if any) referred to in the table to this delegation.
- ii. Each delegation is subject to such policies, policy guidelines and directions as the Council may from time to time approve.
- iii. Each delegation is subject to Council's By-laws or the provision of any Act.
- iv. Each delegation includes any person acting in the delegated positions.

For and on behalf of the Break O'Day Council

The Break O'Day Council pursuant to a resolution of Council Number 05/24.13.4.364 dated 20 May 2024 hereby approved these delegation.

Signed on the 20 day of May 2024

This register is maintained in compliance with section 22 (4) of the Local Government Act 1993 (Tas).

Notes on Delegation

(1) A council may delegate to any person any of its powers and functions under the Building Act 2016, other than the power of delegation: s.8(3) of the Building Act 2016. If Council intends to delegate any powers or functions to the general manager and also intends the general manager to have the power to delegate those powers or functions then Council must also authorise the general manager to do so.

(2) The general manager may delegate to any person any of the general manager's powers and functions under the Building Act 2016, other than the power of delegation: s.8(4) of the Building Act 2016.

(3) The general manager may delegate any functions or powers delegated by the Council which the Council authorised the general manager to delegate: s.64(b) of the Local Government Act 1993.

(4) There is no power for the permit authority to delegate any functions or powers pursuant to the Building Act 2016.

(5) If an Act confers a power on a person to delegate a function or power, the person may, in accordance with the Act, delegate the function or power to (a) a person by name; or (b) the holder of a particular office or position by reference to the title of the office or position concerned, whether or not the office or position is vacant at the time of the delegation: s.23AA(1) Acts Interpretation Act 1931 (Tas).

(6) If a function or power is delegated to a particular officer or the holder of a particular office or position (a) the delegation does not cease to have effect merely because the person who was the particular officer or the holder of the particular office or position when the function or power was delegated ceases to be that officer or the holder of that office or position; and (b) the function or power may be performed or exercised by the person for the time being occupying or acting in the office or position concerned: s.23AA(5) Acts Interpretation Act 1931 (Tas).

(7) A function or power that has been delegated may, notwithstanding the delegation, be exercised by the delegator: s.23AA(6) Acts Interpretation Act 1931 (Tas).

13 - Heavy Vehicle National Law (Tasmania) Act 2013

This register is maintained in compliance with section 22 (4) of the Local Government Act 1993 (Tas).

The Heavy Vehicle National Law \(Tasmania\) Act 2013 \(Tas\) makes the Heavy Vehicle National Law applicable in Tasmania with certain modifications for the Tasmanian context. The Act results in the creation of the Heavy Vehicle National Law \(Tasmania\) 2013.

The Heavy Vehicle National Law is contained in a Schedule to the Heavy Vehicle National Law Act 2012 \(Qld\) .

The Acts Interpretation Act 1931 (Tas) does not apply to the Heavy Vehicle National Law (Tasmania).

A council, within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1993 (Tas) , is declared to be a local government authority for the purposes of the Heavy Vehicle National Law (Tasmania). The council is the "road manager" for the purposes of this Act in relation to a road controlled by a local government authority.

The Registrar of Motor Vehicles is the "road authority".

The National Heavy Vehicle Regulator may appoint an employee of a Council to be an "authorised officer": Heavy Vehicle National Law s.481. The Act does not provide for this appointment to be made by a Tasmanian body.

Notes on Delegation

- (1) A council, in writing, may delegate with or without conditions to the general manager, any of its functions or powers under any Act: s.22 Local Government Act 1993 (Tas) (subject to restrictions).
- (2) The general manager, in writing, may delegate to an employee of the council (a) any functions or powers under any Act, other than this power of delegation; and (b) any functions or powers delegated by the council which the council authorised the general manager to delegate: s.64 Local Government Act 1993 (Tas).

21 - Local Government (General) Regulations 2015

DELEGATIONS & AUTHORISATIONS

- * A council, in writing, may delegate with or without conditions to the general manager, any of its functions or powers under any Act: s.22 Local Government Act 1993 (subject to restrictions).
- * The general manager, in writing, may delegate to an employee of the council (a) any functions or powers under any Act, other than this power of delegation; and (b) any functions or powers delegated by the council which the council authorised the general manager to delegate: s.64 Local Government Act 1993.
- * If an Act confers a power on a person to delegate a function or power, the person may, in accordance with the Act, delegate the function or power to (a) a person by name; or (b) the holder of a particular office or position by reference to the title of the office or position concerned, whether or not the office or position is vacant at the time of the delegation: s.23AA(1) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1931.
- * If a function or power is delegated to a particular officer or the holder of a particular office or position (a) the delegation does not cease to have effect merely because the person who was the particular officer or the holder of the particular office or position when the function or power was delegated ceases to be that officer or the holder of that office or position; and (b) the function or power may be performed or exercised by the person for the time being occupying or acting in the office or position concerned: s.23AA(5) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1931.
- * A function or power that has been delegated may, notwithstanding the delegation, be exercised by the delegator: s.23AA(6) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1931.

Notes on the Register (see table)

Note 1:

(a) This section is to be populated by councils. It is suggested entries only be made in this column when the executed instrument of delegation is sighted by the officer making the entry. This will avoid this table being incorrectly relied on with respect to what instruments of delegation have been executed.

(b) Councils may delegate functions and powers to a particular office or position eg - Senior Environmental Health Officer: s.23AA Acts Interpretation Act 1931 (Tas)

Note 2:

This section of the table is to be populated by councils. Conditions or restrictions on the exercise of a power or function can be imposed by the person making the delegation (s.23AA Acts Interpretation Act 1931 (Tas) & s.22 Local Government Act 1993 (Tas)). Conditions or restrictions may also be contained in the legislation.

APPOINTMENTS & AUTHORITIES

Council should make the following appointments:

1. Engineer, either as an employee or approved for the purposes of the Act
2. Parking attendants, employed by Council: s.94(1). A certificate of employment should be provided: s.107(1).

Council should grant the following authorisations:

3. Authorised officer for the purposes of section 41 (an officer of the corporation authorised either generally or in a particular case to give a consent or report under this section) (unless the Corporation's engineer will prepare the necessary reports).
4. Authorised officer for the purposes of section 99 (closure of parking spaces in certain cases).

Once it has done so, those persons will have the powers and functions associated with those positions as set out in the Act.

DELEGATIONS

S. 124 Delegation of powers, &c., by corporations

(1) The corporation may, by special resolution, delegate to one or more officers of the corporation or to a committee consisting of members of the council the exercise or performance of such of its powers or functions under this Act (except this power of delegation) as are specified in the resolution and may, by resolution, revoke wholly or in part any such delegation.

(2) A resolution for the purposes of subsection (1), other than a resolution revoking a delegation, shall be passed by a majority of at least two-thirds of the members of the council present at the meeting at which it is moved.

(3) A power or function, the exercise or performance of which has been delegated under this section, may, while the delegation remains unrevoked, be exercised or performed from time to time in accordance with the terms of the delegation.

(4) A delegation under this section may be made subject to such conditions or limitations as to the exercise or performance of any of the powers or functions delegated, or as to time or circumstance, as are specified in the resolution.

(5) Notwithstanding any delegation under this section, the corporation may continue to exercise or perform all or any of the powers or functions delegated.

(6) Any act or thing done by or to a delegate while acting in the exercise of a delegation under this section shall have the same force and effect as if the act or thing had been done by or to the corporation and shall be deemed to have been done by or to the corporation.

(7) An instrument purporting to be signed by a delegate of the corporation in his capacity as such a delegate shall in all courts and before all persons acting judicially be received in evidence as if it were an instrument executed by the corporation under seal and, until the contrary is proved, shall be deemed to be an instrument signed by a delegate of the corporation under this section.

NB: this Act addresses the power to delegate in detail and therefore the general provisions of the Acts Interpretation Act 1931 will not apply. The restrictions imposed on delegations contained in s.22(3) of the Local Government Act 1993 will still apply.

28 - Right to Information Act 2009

DECISIONS

S.21 Decision to be made on behalf of public authority by authorised person

- (1) A decision in respect of an application for information made to a public authority is to be made by -
- (a) the responsible Minister; or
 - (b) the principal officer of the public authority; or
 - (c) a delegated officer.

S.5 Interpretation

Delegated Officer means a person specified in an instrument of delegation in accordance with section 24.

Principal Officer means ... (c) in relation to a council, the general manager of that council

Public authority means ... (c) a council...or ... (h) a council-owned company; ...

Council owned company means a company incorporated under the Corporations Act that is controlled by one or more councils or another company that is so controlled

DELEGATIONS AND AUTHORISATIONS

A council, in writing, may delegate with or without conditions to the general manager, any of its functions or powers under any Act: s.22 Local Government Act 1993

S.24 Principal officer or Minister may delegate his or her functions

- (1) The principal officer of a public authority or a Minister may by instrument in writing delegate to a person specified in the instrument the performance or exercise of such of his or her functions or powers under this Act (other than this power of delegation) as are specified in the instrument, and may, by instrument in writing, revoke wholly or in part any such delegation.
- (2) A delegation may be for a period not exceeding 3 years.
- (3) The principal officer of a public authority or a Minister must not delegate to a person the performance or exercise of his or her functions or powers under this Act unless the principal officer or Minister is satisfied that the person has the skills and knowledge necessary to perform or exercise those functions or powers.
- (4) Notwithstanding any delegation under this section, the principal officer of a public authority or a Minister may continue to perform or exercise all or any of the functions or powers delegated.
- (5) Any act or thing done by or to a delegate while acting in the exercise of a delegation under this section has the same force and effect as if the act or thing had been done by or to the principal officer of a public authority or a Minister and is taken to have been done by or to the principal officer or Minister.

NB: this Act addresses the power to delegate in detail and therefore the general provisions of the Acts Interpretation Act 1931 will not apply.

APPOINTMENT

S23 The principal officer of a public authority may appoint an officer to assist him or her with the functions specified in s.23(1).

31 - Survey Co-Ordination Act 1944

This register is maintained in compliance with section 22 (4) of the Local Government Act 1993 (Tas).

Notes on Delegation

(1) A council, in writing, may delegate with or without conditions to the general manager, any of its functions or powers under any Act: s.22 Local Government Act 1993 (Tas) (subject to restrictions).

(2) The general manager, in writing, may delegate to an employee of the council (a) any functions or powers under any Act, other than this power of delegation; and (b) any functions or powers delegated by the council which the council authorised the general manager to delegate: s.64 Local Government Act 1993 (Tas).

(3) If an Act confers a power on a person to delegate a function or power, the person may, in accordance with the Act, delegate the function or power to (a) a person by name; or (b) the holder of a particular office or position by reference to the title of the office or position concerned, whether or not the office or position is vacant at the time of the delegation: s.23AA(1) Acts Interpretation Act 1931 (Tas).

(4) If a function or power is delegated to a particular officer or the holder of a particular office or position (a) the delegation does not cease to have effect merely because the person who was the particular officer or the holder of the particular office or position when the function or power was delegated ceases to be that officer or the holder of that office or position; and (b) the function or power may be performed or exercised by the person for the time being occupying or acting in the office or position concerned: s.23AA(5) Acts Interpretation Act 1931 (Tas).

(5) A function or power that has been delegated may, notwithstanding the delegation, be exercised by the delegator: s.23AA(6) Acts Interpretation Act 1931 (Tas).

Notes on the Register (see table)

Note 1:

(a) This section is to be populated by councils. It is suggested entries only be made in this column when the executed instrument of delegation is sighted by the officer making the entry. This will avoid this table being incorrectly relied on with respect to what instruments of delegation have been executed.
