Checklist of Application Documents:

An application must include the following documents, submitted in PDF formatting:

1. Completed Application Form – All relevant sections of the application form must be completed and signed by the landowner or the applicant.
Note: If the applicant is not the landowner, they must inform the landowner of their intention to submit the application and must sign the declaration section of the application form to confirm this.
2. Certificate of Title
A copy of the current Certificate of Title for all land to which the permit relates is provided. This includes:

The title plan outlining property boundaries and land description, and any relevant dealings or restrictions recorded on the title.

Note: Eligibility requires this item to be 6 months old or less.

3. Schedule of Easements, if applicable.
A copy of the schedule of easements, as listed in the folio of the title, is included. This identifies any existing easements, covenants, or restrictions that may affect the proposed development or land use.
4. Ensure detailed plans drawn to scale are provided, including:

Site Plan: Clearly indicating the boundaries of the property, existing structures, access points, landscaping, and any relevant features of the surrounding environment.

Floor Plan: The internal layout of each building proposed for the site, along with elevations for all buildings to be erected.

Proposed Development Layout: Showing the exact location, dimensions, and orientation of the proposed development on the site, in relation to existing structures and property lines.

These plans ensure that the development complies with zoning regulations, building codes, and planning requirements.

5. Provide a detailed description of the proposed use and/or development for your application. The information can be provided separately in a cover letter outlining the proposed project or included in the email along with the other attachments.

For further information on the above requirements, please refer to Section 6.1 – Application Requirements of the Tasmanian Planning Scheme (TPS).
